BronxNet is an independent, not-for-profit organization, established under the Cable Television Franchise Agreement between the City of New York and Cablevision of New York City. The station began cablecasting programs on July 1, 1993. BronxNet provides local television by the people of the Bronx, for the people of the Bronx. Our channels feature BronxNet produced shows, as well as those created by community access producers. BronxNet has a commitment to: training Bronx residents in television production, providing hands-on internships and solid media career preparation for high school and college students, and producing programs in the interest of Bronx residents and not-for-profit organizations.

Community Television Channels

BronxNet programs are available on Channels 67, 68, 69 and 70 on the Cablevision system and on Channels 33, 34, 35, 36, 37 and 38 on the Verizon Fios system. Each channel presents a unique brand of programming:

{tab=Channel 67 & 33}The BronxNet Signature Channel, your community media resource, keeps viewers up-to-date on local issues, in touch with the arts, and face-to-face with the borough's representatives. {tab=Channel 68 & 34}The Independent Entertainment Channel features programs produced by Bronx residents including many that spotlight local artists. {tab=Channel 69 & 35}The Independent Cultural Channel includes foreign language and cultural programs produced by Bronx residents. It includes some BronxNet Signature programs. {tab=Channel 70 & 36}The Independent Spirit Channel features informational programs produced by local organizations and inspirational programs produced by local churches. {/tabs}

{tab=Channel 37 (& blocks of programming on 67)}The channel for young people, by young people, about young people. Teenagers and their schools and youth organizations create programs on numerous topics. {tab=Channel 38 (& Bronx Currents on 67)}The Civic Channel, features borough meetings, public events and more. {/tabs}

Creative Sevices

BxFx Video Production Services BxFx produces video projects for businesses and organizations for multiple purposes. Fees are based on the nature and length of the project. A team of professional producers, videographers, editors, writers and graphics artists is available to create a range of effective, cutting-edge video programs.

BronxNet Training

Training for Bronx Residents BronxNet provides television production training for individuals and organizations that want to utilize the station's equipment and facilities to produce programs to air on a BronxNet channel. Training is available four times a year, to Bronx residents, representatives of Bronx organizations and students who attend college in the Bronx. Production trainers are individuals with years of experience in the production business.

Public Access

BRONXNET programs four channels-67, 68, 69, and 70-on the Cablevision system in the Bronx. Channel 67 focuses on public affairs programs produced by the station.
Channel 68
features arts and entertainment programs including many that spotlight local artists.
Channel 69
includes a host of foreign language programs of special interest to the various nationalities that make up the borough.
Channel 70
is largely dedicated to informational programs produced by local organizations as well as inspirational programs produced by local churches.