

February 16th will be the launch of the Bronx's Teen and Reproductive health day. Organized by the Connect to Protect Bronx Coalition, the Bronx Teens Connection program and the Bronx Borough President's office, it is a day that will feature panel discussions highlighting the importance of the community to improve health conditions for Bronx teens. Some of the issues to be discussed are STD's, prevention of teen pregnancy, and LGBTQ issues.{jcomments on}